

2012-11-07 / General

Local Artwork On Display At Owen Valley Winery

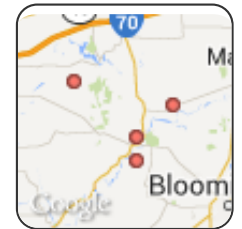

A family and community theme can be felt throughout the family owned and operated Owen Valley Winery. Where's the story?

The winery offers tastings of locally-made wine, along with platters containing sausage, cheese and crackers from Rice's Quality Farm Meats.

Can't get enough chocolate? The winery also features mouth watering delights from Nate's Candy Jar of Gosport.

In addition, the winery is also currently displaying a variety paintings from the Owen County Art Guild as part of the guild's 'Partners in Painting' outreach.

Local oil paintings, priced for sale from $15 to $125, are on display, including the works of Leanna Arnold, Dorothy Cumbo, John Andrews, Barb Bauer, Holly Wheeler, Pat Harris, Ron Miller, Naomi Dickie and Olivia Johnson.

4 Points Mentioned

The community is invited to attend the winery's upcoming fall festival, scheduled for Saturday, October 20 at 491 Timber Ridge Road, south of Spencer.

B onnie Leaderbrand and son, Anthony, of the Owen Valley Winery are shown here along with a variety of paintings by local artists from the Owen County Art Guild currently on display at the family's winery on rural Timber Ridge Road. (Courtesy Photos)

Return to top

